The Vault Stays. The Vision™s Yours.
This bold brick beauty in the heart of Blairmore was once a Royal Bank and yes, the original vaults are still intact. Today, it's a fully leased office hub with six private workspaces, but its potential stretches well beyond the leadership lounge.

With high ceilings in the walkout basement, a second floor patio with mountain views, and off-street parking, this building is perfectly positioned for a fresh new chapter. Coffee shop? Boutique retail? A cool co-working space with vintage flair? You name it.

Set on a high-visibility block of Main Street, this 2-storey character building has already had a glow up...updated electrical, plumbing, LED lighting, flooring, most windows and a brand new roof on the way in summer 2025. If you™ve been waiting for the building, the one with history, charm, and room for your big ideas, this is it. Standout properties like this don™t come along often in the Crowsnest Pass. Some images shown are virtual concept renderings used for illustration purposes only. They do not reflect the current state or layout of the property. All proposed uses and design ideas are conceptual only and subject to buyer verification and municipal approval.
